

OCTOBER 2009 NEWS

IN WITH THE NEW!

Its an absolute delight for me to inform you that Chef Wayne Spencer has saved the day! here Restaurant Joubert used to be (right next door to me), is now a brand new restaurant.

Hermanos - Spanish for 'brothers' as Wayne and his brother have gone into partnership - is opening its doors on Friday the 23 October.

WE CANT WAIT!

Wayne is concentrating on local produce both food-wise and wine-wise with the emphasis on price and quality - excellent quality without the hefty price tag! For now Hermanos will be open for dinner only and to check out what's on offer you can visit their website at: www.hermanos.co.za.

Reservations: 028 313 1916 open 18:00 till late.

VERITAS AWARDS!

I took a drive out to Cape Town yesterday evening to attend the Veritas Award tasting - what a terrible job i have! :-)

If you're interested in the results they can be viewed at: <http://www.veritas.co.za/Downloads/wwwFullResults2009.pdf>

Stocks are already coming in and there are quite a few of these wines already showing themselves off on the shelves.

Let me know if you'd like any.

COLMANT ROSÉ !

Fantastic news for us Colmant freaks - the Brut Rosé is back in stock. This is his second vintage and thanks to the huge success of the first vintage this one has been placed on strict allocation. I'm not prepared to divulge what my scoop is, but if you want some you'd better act fast.
